

OFFICIAL COMBATANT'S CONTRACT

THIS COMBATANT CONTRACT ("Contract") is entered into by and between TRC, ROBOT REBELLION on the one hand, and the combatant and all associated team members and affiliates set forth below (collectively, "Combatant"), on the other hand. TRC and Combatant shall sometimes collectively be referred to as the "Parties". The Tournament will feature the radio-controlled robots of the Combatant and other competitors in one-on-one combat. It is the purpose of this Contract to set forth the terms and conditions of Combatant's participation in the Tournament. Accordingly, in consideration of TRC's promotion of, and Combatant's desire to compete in, the Tournament, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Nature Of The Tournament.

Combatant acknowledges that the Tournament will involve physical combat between robots operated by Combatant and other contestants. Such combat may result in significant damage to, or the complete destruction of, Combatant's robot(s). Combatant acknowledges and expressly accepts the risk of loss of any robot(s) and property that Combatant uses to compete in the Tournament. Combatant shall not assert any claims for property loss against TRC or any other person or entity that arise out of or are related to the Tournament.

2. Compliance With Rules, Regulations, and Instructions.

Combatant agrees to comply with all of TRC's written and oral rules and regulations relating to the Tournament. Certain of these rules and regulations can be accessed on the Internet at www.dallasrobotarena.com and additional rules may be set forth orally or in writing at the Tournament. To the extent that Combatant fails to comply with any of TRC's written or oral rules or regulations, TRC may, at its sole discretion, disqualify that Combatant and/or the Combatant's robot(s) from the Tournament.

3. Safety.

It is essential that all robots competing in the Tournament operate safely. Combatant expressly warrants and represents that Combatant's robot(s) complies with all of TRC's rules and regulations relating to design, construction, and safe operation. If, at any time, Combatant believes that a robot poses a risk of danger or injury to any person, Combatant shall immediately cease all operation of that robot. TRC shall have unlimited discretion to disqualify a robot or an individual from competing in the Tournament for any reason.

4. Release of Liability and Indemnity.

Notwithstanding the various efforts that will be made to ensure that the Tournament is safe, Combatant acknowledges that robotic combat is inherently dangerous and involves the risk of serious injury to competitors and spectators. Combatant expressly waives, releases, and holds harmless TRC from all claims, demands, causes of action, damages, and/or liabilities that may arise from the Tournament and any preparations for the Tournament. Combatant expressly agrees to indemnify and hold harmless TRC from all claims, demands, causes of action, damages, and/or liabilities which may be suffered or incurred arising out of the design, maintenance, appearance, and/or operation of Combatant's robot, including any intellectual property rights associated with the robot.

5. Grant of Rights.

Except as set forth expressly in paragraph 6 below, Combatant agrees that TRC shall have the perpetual non-exclusive right to display, use, and otherwise exploit all rights Combatant may hold in the following: (a) Combatant's name, voice, likeness, biographical data, and identity; (b) the design and appearance of Combatant's robot(s). It is agreed that TRC shall have the right, but not the obligation, to film, photograph, and/or videotape the Tournament, including without limitation, events taking place prior to, during, and after the Tournament, in whole or in part, by means of any media and to commercially exploit the resulting product in perpetuity, by any means. TRC shall have the sole and exclusive right to distribute, sell, license, exhibit, and in any other manner exploit all derivative works resulting from the Tournament and the filming, photographing, and videotaping thereof.

Except as otherwise provided above, any waiver, amendment or other modification of this Contract will not be effective unless in writing and signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought. The waiver by either party of any of its rights or remedies in a particular instance will not be construed as a waiver of the same or different right or remedy in other instances.

(c) Severability. If any provision of this Contract is held to be unenforceable, in whole or in part, such holding will not affect the validity of the other provisions of this Contract.
